Greetings Brothers and Sisters:

As we enter this month of April, Julie and I would like to wish everyone a blessed Passover and Happy Easter. Please take the time and spent this holiday with your family, friends, and Eagle family.

Again, I had a busy month of March and visited many Aeries. We started off visiting with Indian River Lagoon 4527 and was warmly greeted. We then stopped in and visited with the members at Sebastian Inlet Aerie 4067 on our way to the President's Roast at Vero Beach Aerie 4374. Thank you, Vero, for the room and hosting the Roast and to those of you who showed up, a warm thank you as we had a great time. BTW, thanks Sherry for the framed pic, lol.

Unfortunately, the following week I was off on Grand Aerie business and was out of the State for most of the week and missed Cocoa's Anniversary. I was advised it was a great success. Happy Anniversary Space Coast Aerie 3550. I received a call from Clermont and was invited down there for their State Charity fundraiser. So, I spend St. Patrick's Day with the brothers and sisters of Clermont and what fun we had. Many new faces I met. This same week we were of the Okahumpka, Lake County Aerie 4273 for their anniversary while Robert went over to Hudson, 3997 for theirs. Thank you Okahumpka for the great room and basket and the wonderful donation to Betty and my Charities. A big shout out to Hudson as they celebrated their anniversary and for their donation, again, I extend a huge thank you to you all.

Finally, we closed out the month with the State Aerie and Auxiliary annual picnic hosted by Port Orange Aerie 4089. WOW is all I can say. Grand Aerie President Dave, along with Grand Aerie Board of Trustee's Chairman, Ron and their significant others Marlene and Brenda who joined us and what a time we had. While they were here, Dave and I visited with the folks at Ormond by the Sea Aerie 4435 and laughed into the late evening. Our State Vice President Charlie held the State Golf Tournament in conjunction with the picnic and what can I say, great job Charlie. Check out my Facebook page for some pictures of these events. On both of these events can you say SRO? Thanks Port Orange, Bruce, Bob, Richard, "auxiliary ladies" and all of those that put this together, kudos, job well done. I cannot remember a picnic or golf tournament that was this large in many years. Great job all, great job.

If I missed saying thank you to anyone for their support for sponsorship of the State Aerie this month, please forgive me as I get older, I seem to be forgetful at times. As we move into April the holiest of months, again I ask each of you to spend as much time with your loved ones and support your Aeries as best as you can. Also, please remember we have nominations this month so get those members nominated and help them get ready to take the helm for the incoming year.

Happy Easter all, as Julie and I send all of our love to you out there in Eagledom, I am Fraternally yours, Brother Steve.

From The State Madam President

Another month gone! What a great one it has been! The Roast, which I might say was awesome. Thank you girls for being kind to me. Cocoa, you guys went all out with a wonderful dinner and donations. Lake County, an awesome showing from your members. It was such an awesome evening. To end up at Port Orange for our picnic which was so much more than I expected. What a great day. The whole month was like a breath of fresh air, ending with a phenomenal Golf Tournament.

If we can keep up this momentum for the next 2 months the year will end on a high note. Thanks to all members, officers, past presidents and Grand Reps who have celebrated our year so far with us.
